

What's in a Language?

Why do you think language is important?

What is the definition of language?

How is language a part of our culture?

Do you think all people should speak the same language? Why or why not?

Give an example of two words that describe your culture.

How would you feel if someone told you that you could no longer speak your own language and that you had to learn a new one?

What other languages would you like to learn?
