

AWN TLU SITE ASSESSMENT FORM©

SITE SUMMARY

First Visit General Site Type:

Update
 Habitation Enviro Feature
 Burial or Cultural/Spiritual Trail/Transportation
 Subsistence (Hunting/Gathering) Other (describe):

1. SITE IDENTIFICATION

Site Name(s) in Cree: _____ Source: _____
 Site Name(s) in English: Jarvis Lake Cemetary Source: Mike Moberly
 Temporary Field ID: Jarvis Cem

2. LOCATION AND DESCRIPTION

Field Location Identified By: Mike Moberly
 Recorded By: Marc Levasseur Date of Visit: 2006/03/24
yyyy/mm/dd
 Field Coordinates (NAD 83 ONLY) Number of Satellites: 7
 UTM Zone: 11 Easting: 0445942 Northing: 5921571 Error: ± 6
 GPS model: GPS Map 60 (GPSI) Legal Description (if available):
 Elevation: 1162 M Weather: overcast

Site Description

Defining Features:
Fenced cemetary with 33 visible spirit houses.

Oral History Summary Aseniwuche Winewak people use to spend part of the year in the meadows near by. Some had cabins and some lived in tee pee's. last used in the mid. 60's.

-Who used the place?
 -What did they do there?
 -When did they last use it?
 -How did they get there?

Source: Mike Moberly

3. SITE VISIT

Site Visit Type: Recording Monitoring Project Name: AWN TLU

Site Visit Team:

Person Name	Person Role(s)	Affiliation
Mike Moberly	Community member	AWN
Marc Levasseur	TLU Coordinator	AWN

4. SITE CONTEXT

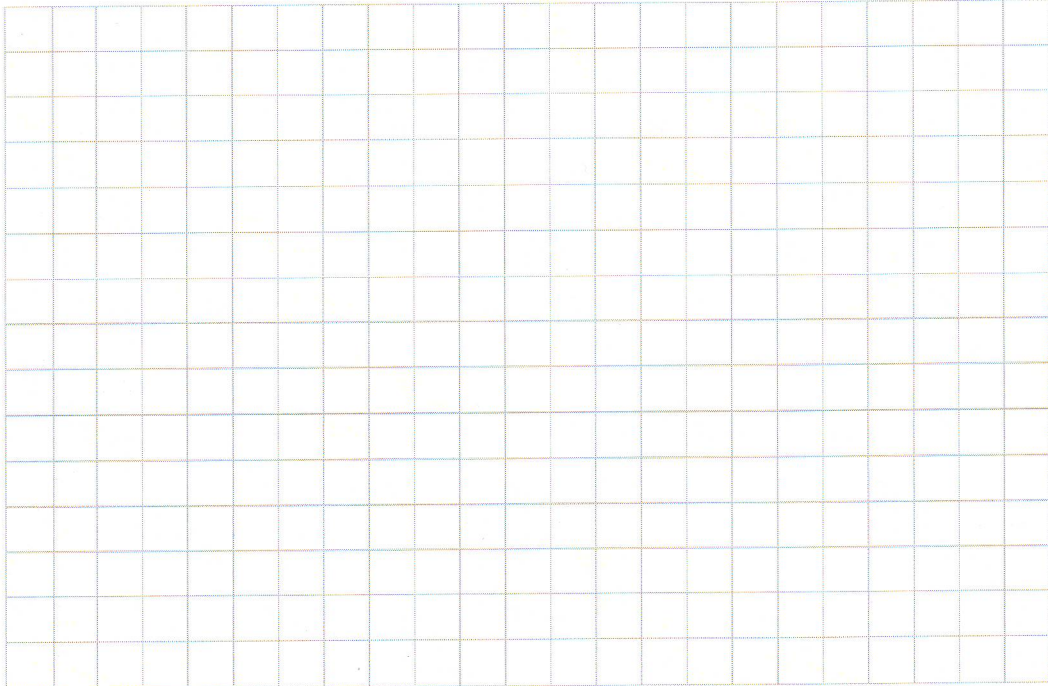

Environmental Description (landforms, vegetation, drainage, animal sign)

Edge of meadow near willows

Other Associated Sites: Louie Joachim cabin, Felix Wanyandie cabin.

Access:

5. SITE MAP

	LEGEND
---	---------------

7. OTHER DOCUMENTS (Photos, Audio, Video, Notes, Maps)

Type	Location	Recorded By	Description	Title or File Names
Digital Pictures	AWN Server	Marc Levasseur		IMG-181 to 189

6. SITE CONDITION

Disturbance History:

Site Influence	Disturbance Details	Condition Remarks and % Disturbed
Important Habitation Area used over a long period of time		Natural deterioration Spirit houses

Recorder's Recommendations and Comments:

Ask elders if they would like to see the cemetery restored?

