The National Mall

SMITHSONIAN MUSEUMS ELSEWHERE AROUND THE WASHINGTON, D.C. AREA
ANACOSTIA COMMUNITY MUSEUM
1901 Fort Place, SE
NATIONAL ZOO
3001 CONNECTICUT AVENUE, NW
STEVEN F. UDVAR-HAZY CENTER
AIR AND SPACE MUSEUM PARKWAY, CHANTILLY, VIRGINIA

STREET CLOSINGS

Most streets around the National Mall—including Independence and Constitution avenues and Jefferson and Madison drives—will be closed Monday, January 21.

METRO

The Archives and Smithsonian Metrorail stations will be closed January 20 to 21, midnight to 5:30 p.m. All other stations will open January 21 at 4 a.m.

LEGEND

Metro station
Museum offers restaurant service

The Inaugural Podium and the Inaugural Bust will be installed on Independence Avenue. The Bust is a cast-replica bust of the President, sculpted by Greek-American artist Phidias. The Bust will be on view January 10–March 3 at the National Portrait Gallery.

A PAIR OF IMAGES ON TAPESTRY CAPTURING THE PRESIDENT’S EXPRESSIONS, INCLUDING HIS READY SMILE (ABOVE), IS ON VIEW JANUARY 10–MARCH 3 AT THE NATIONAL PORTRAIT GALLERY

SUPPORTED BY THE 2013 PRESIDENTIAL INAUGURAL COMMITTEE
WWW.2013PIG.org
2013 Inauguration Guide to the Smithsonian

MUST-SEE EXHIBITIONS

“The American Presidency: A Glorious Burden” NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AMERICAN HISTORY (THIRD FLOOR)
Take a peek at life behind the iconic columns at the White House and learn about the most important office in the land.

“The First Ladies” NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AMERICAN HISTORY (THIRD FLOOR)
See more than two dozen dresses, including those of Jacqueline Kennedy, Laura Bush and Michelle Obama, from the Smithsonian’s century-old collection.

“America’s Presidents” NATIONAL PORTRAIT GALLERY (SECOND FLOOR)
See a collection of presidential portraits and on January 21 from 1 to 6 p.m., visit with reenactors portraying George and Martha Washington and Abraham and Mary Lincoln.

“Installation of the ‘Hope’ Portrait of Barack Obama” NATIONAL PORTRAIT GALLERY (SECOND FLOOR)
View Shepard Fairey’s hand-finished collage (detail), made famous during the president’s 2008 campaign.

DON’T MISS

NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AMERICAN HISTORY
George Washington’s Uniform, Lincoln’s Top Hat, The White House China Collection, Thomas Jefferson’s portable desk, Ulysses S. Grant’s horse-drawn carriage, Franklin D. Roosevelt’s microphone for his fireside chats, Bill Clinton’s saxophone, Abraham Lincoln’s life masks.

SMITHSONIAN AMERICAN ART MUSEUM
Inaugural Presidential Medals
For programs and updates, visit SMITHSONIAN.COM/INAUGURATION

TRIVIA QUIZ

1. Who was the first president to take the oath in Washington, D.C.?
2. Which president was forced to borrow a Bible for his first inauguration?
3. Which president’s inaugural party forced him to flee the White House?
4. Which president was sworn in by a former president?
5. Who traveled undercover to Washington for his inauguration?
6. Who was the first first lady to have an inaugural gown on display at the Smithsonian while she was still in the White House?
7. Which president gave the shortest inaugural address?
8. Which president decided to call his inaugural “balls” inaugural “parties”?
9. Which president was sworn in by his father?
10. In one year there were three presidential inaugurations. What was the year and who were they?

SEE BELOW FOR ANSWERS.

Inauguration Events, Monday, January 21:
11 Swearing in ceremony (live broadcast available at the American History Museum, 2:30-5:45, Inaugural Parade)

NATIONAL AIR AND SPACE MUSEUM McDonald’s McCafe, Boston Market and Donatini’s Pizza, FIRST FLOOR Main Store, FIRST FLOOR 1 • NATIONAL MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY: Atrium Cafe, Cafe Natural, GROUND FLOOR • Fossil Cafe, FIRST FLOOR 1 • Main Store, Family Store, LOWER LEVEL 1 • NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AMERICAN HISTORY: Stars and Stripes Cafe, LOWER LEVEL 1 • Constitution Cafe, 1 WEST • Main Store Museum, FIRST FLOOR 1 • SMITHSONIAN CASTLE Cafe and Coffee Bar, Castle Store, MAIN HALL.

All museums open to the public during designated hours have accessible restrooms.

Ticket area from 4th Street to the U.S. Capitol General Public (standing) from 4th Street to 12th Street.

Questions? Please call 202-633-1000 or e-mail Info@si.edu

For More About the Smithsonian Institution visit www.si.edu

FOR MORE ABOUT THE SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION VISIT WWW.SI.EDU
CUSTOMER SERVICE: QUESTIONS? PLEASE CALL 202-633-1000 OR E-MAIL INFO@SI.EDU

Events Calendar
Custom Photo Postcards
Self-Guided Tours
Maps and GPS

This brochure is created from the SMITHSONIAN BOOK OF PRESIDENTIAL TRIVIA Everything you ever wanted to know about the presidents and more, drawing on the Smithsonian's extensive collections. Hit the “O” button to see. As an audio or at Smithsonian stores.

THE VISITORS GUIDE APP
Make the most out of your visit to the Smithsonian: Maps and GPS, Self-guided Tours, Custom Photo Postcards, Events Calendar.

THE VISITORS GUIDE APP
For more great apps from Smithsonian go to: SI.EDU/MOBILE