Format and Scope of Bibliography

To facilitate the use of this bibliography by Northwestern University Library patrons, this bibliography has been divided into two parts: Part One: Items In Northwestern University Libraries' Collections and Part Two: Items In Other Libraries' Collections. The entries in Part One and Part Two are unique items. In other words, the entries have not been duplicated in both sections. The entries have been formatted according to The Chicago Manual of Style, 15th ed. (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2003).

Basic Form of Entries:

Author(s). Title. Series. Editor. City: Publisher, date.

Language(s)*

Note(s)*

Material Types*

This bibliography has been designed to identify finding aids (indexes and bibliographies) to League of Nations documents. The bibliography was compiled by searching OCLC's WorldCat, a union catalog of over 9000 libraries' holdings worldwide and NUcat, Northwestern University Library's catalog. The following search strategies were used. WorldCat and NUcat were searched for items with the subject phrase "League of Nations" and the subject term "index," "indexes," "bibliography," or "bibliographies". In addition, many primary source documents have been included from searching these catalogs for the corporate author "League of Nations" where the entries include the keywords "index," "indexes," "bibliography," or "bibliographies". The compiler of this bibliography has relied on data integrity of the records in WorldCat and NUcat and has not physically verified the data used in this bibliography.

This bibliography includes only a few electronic documents that have been catalogued in WorldCat or NUcat. To locate digitized collections of League of Nations documents, please see the following:
