1. Students of Codrington College, Barbados, may have their names placed on the register of the University as matriculated students of the same, provided that the Principal of the College, or other person authorised to act on their behalf, shall have certified that they have passed an examination similar to that required for the admission of students in the several Faculties in the University of Durham.

2. Students of the affiliated College, having been so matriculated, shall be admissible to the exercises and public examinations required for proceeding to degrees, diplomas, licences, and academical rank in the several Faculties, provided that they shall have forwarded certificates of having fulfilled similar conditions as to residence, attendance at lectures, and conformity to discipline in the College, to those required from other students of the University so admissible, terms of residence being counted from the time of passing the Admission Examination of the College; provided also that in each academical year such students shall be required to keep such number of terms, not being less than three, as the authorities of the College shall determine, as the equivalent of three terms at Durham.

3. The Principal of the said College shall forward to the Registrar and Secretary lists of students of the College who are candidates for any examinations, together with the certificates required, in time for them to be received at Durham eight weeks at least before the commencement of the examinations at Durham. The examination papers shall be sent to the Principal of the College, in sealed packets by the last convenient mails previous to the commencement of the examination at Durham. The papers so sent shall be set to the candidates as nearly as possible on the days of the examination at Durham, and the answers to them returned as soon as possible after the conclusion of the examination to the Registrar and Secretary (who shall transmit them to the examiners), together with a certificate signed by the Principal of the College, or the person acting on his or her behalf, that the examination has been duly conducted, and the above-named conditions complied with. Students of the affiliated College may not without the permission of Senate present themselves for examination elsewhere than at the affiliated College.

4. The examiners, after examining the papers, shall issue and publish in the usual manner supplemental lists of those who have passed the examination, and of those who have been adjudged worthy of Honours; which lists shall be sent by the Registrar and Secretary without delay to the Principal of the College.

5. Candidates from the affiliated College may receive their degrees in Congregation at Durham, either in person or in absentia, or at a Congregation holden at the affiliated College by The Visitor of the same or by a Deputy Visitor acting under the authority of Senate, provided that:
   (a) No degree shall be conferred upon a candidate at the affiliated College unless the Registrar and Secretary of the University has certified that the candidate is eligible for the degree.
   (b) No degree shall be conferred upon a candidate at the affiliated College unless the candidate has paid the prescribed University fee and any additional fee which may be prescribed by the College. Record of all degrees conferred at Congregations shall be sent as soon as possible to the Registrar and Secretary of the University.

*In agreement with Fourah Bay College, the affiliation of the College to the University of Durham was ended on 22 February 1967 - the date of the Royal Assent to the Act creating a new federal University of Sierra Leone and reconstituting the College as a Constituent College of that University. Agreements between the two institutions safeguard the rights of all students of the College who matriculated in the University of Durham prior to October 1966 to proceed to Durham qualifications if they so wish.
