This four-year scholarship was established by Thomas F. Ryan '59, in fond memory of BLS teacher, Dr. Joseph F. Desmond '44, and in support of Boston College, his alma mater. This scholarship is to be awarded to the member of the graduating class who has been chosen as a Boston College Presidential Scholar.

LXXXVI
THE STEPHEN S. O’DONNELL SCHOLARSHIP
Emilia Zambrano
This prize is offered in recognition and appreciation of Stephen S. O’Donnell’s contribution to the music programs at the Boston Latin School from 1968 to 1974. His dedication to musical excellence enriched the lives of everyone who listened to his vocal renditions of classical and popular music. It is presented to a member of the graduating class who has demonstrated musical excellence by participation and achievement in the musical programs at Boston Latin School.

LXXXVII
THE PETER J. CARRIS SCHOLARSHIP
Maria Zolotarev
This scholarship is offered in recognition and memory of Peter J. Carris '37, father of James '73, and Eugenia "Genie" Carris '86. It is presented to a member of the graduating class who is an immigrant to this country, or the child or grandchild of immigrants, who has demonstrated leadership, scholarship, and character, and who shows concern for the well-being of the student body at Boston Latin School.

LXXXVIII
THE DANIEL G. MURRAY SCHOLARSHIP
Thomas Flanagan
The Daniel G. Murray Scholarship was established in memory of Daniel G. Murray, Class of 1989, who died suddenly in November 1990 from a rare heart condition. The award is to be presented annually in his memory to a graduating senior who resides in the West Roxbury area. The recipient should maintain a reasonable academic record, be active in extracurricular activities and also be active in his/her community.

LXXXIX
THE FRANK A. CROSSON SCHOLARSHIP
Jo-Nathan Charles, Marvin Cine, Jeffrey Donaldson
This scholarship is awarded to one or more graduating seniors in memory of Frank A. Crosson of the Class of 1957, class officer, student, and athlete. It shall be presented to those, who by their academic record and extracurricular involvement, give evidence of likely future success and leadership and who show strong indications of faithful activity to enhance both the closeness of their graduating class and the work of the Boston Latin School Alumni Association.

XC
THE JOHN EMMETT O’DONNELL SCHOLARSHIP
Amanda Kessler
This scholarship is awarded each year to the graduating senior who exhibits a great sense of history and a strong interest in making a difference through public service and community involvement. This scholarship is given by Ann Dwyer O’Donnell in memory of her husband, a member of the Class of 1952.

XCII
THE ALICE KEHOE SULLIVAN SCHOLARSHIP
Sara Awad, Emily Dunne, Elyse Hanson
This scholarship has been established for the benefit of those students entering college who are not receiving sufficient scholarship aid from other sources and who have shown promise in the study of languages.

XCIII
THE JOHN R. (1926) AND PAUL H. (1929) FITZPATRICK SCHOLARSHIP FUND
Marcos Marcal
Established by a gift of John R. Fitzpatrick 1926, as a memorial to his brother Paul 1929, and himself. The income from this fund is to be disbursed each year by the Association without restriction.

XCIV
THE CLASS OF 1946 MEMORIAL ENDOWMENT FUND
Anna George, Chaseedaw Giles, Karen Herrera
Established by a gift in honor of their fiftieth reunion by the Class of 1946. The Association may use such portion of the net income of the fund for the benefit of the students of the Boston Latin School.
THE CLASS OF 1938 SCHOLARSHIP
Derek Truong

On the occasion of its sixtieth reunion, the Class of 1938 has established an annual scholarship to be awarded to a student from the lower half of the graduating class who has shown outstanding effort and determination during his or her term at the school.

THE VERSHBOW SCHOLARSHIP
Aaron Gerratt

Established in memory of their father, Herman Vershbow, by Arthur E. Vershbow 1939, and Daniel R. Vershbow 1942, for a senior prize in Science or Mathematics.

THE DAVID AND KAREN PARKER SCHOLARSHIP FUND
Zachary Trayes-Gibson

Out of appreciation for the education that their two daughters, Emily ’91, and Adelaide ’97, received at Boston Latin School, and to encourage students to attend the University of Chicago, David and Karen Parker established this scholarship to be awarded to a member of the graduating class who will be attending the University of Chicago.

THE DAVID G. YEP, M.D. SCHOLARSHIP FUND
Karen Ho

The David G. Yep, M.D. Scholarship Fund has been established by David G. Yep, M.D., Class of 1945. The income from this fund will be awarded to a graduating senior of Chinese origin who has demonstrated excellence in studies, good conduct, true moral leadership, and good character during his or her years at the Latin School, and requires financial assistance to further his or her education.

THE JOHN B. CUNNINGHAM MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP
Fahd Abdussabur

To be awarded annually to a graduating senior of minority descent who demonstrates a financial need to attend the college of his or her choice and who best represents the spirit, scholarship and discipline of John Cunningham, a fine athlete, student, and friend of the Class of 1985.

THE CHARLES AND MABEL RIGBY SCHOLARSHIP
Andrew Flannery

The scholarship should go to at least a “C” student who lettered on an athletic team and was involved in a school publication. The scholarship is for one year and is to be awarded to a selectee of the school’s Head Master.

THE WARREN A. CASEY ’30 AND VIRGINIA R. CASEY PERMANENT SCHOLARSHIP
Ian Chong, Yao Huang

A scholarship established by Warren A. Casey, Class of 1930 and his wife Virginia R. Casey, the income of which is to be used to reward one or more graduating students annually on the basis of a combination of excellence in studies and financial need.

THE JAMES M. QUINN ’48 SCHOLARSHIP
Timothy Galvin, Kathleen Harrington, John Holbrook, Adam Jennex

Established by a bequest of James M. Quinn of the Class of 1948, this scholarship shall be awarded to a graduating senior whom the prize and scholarship committee deems appropriate.

THE DAVID MILLER SCHOLARSHIP
Carl Adams, Jr.

A scholarship donated by Lewis H. Miller, Class of 1968, in memory of his father, David Miller long time Latin teacher and Guidance Director at the School. The fund is to be used to provide assistance to those graduating seniors who, despite extraordinary effort and perseverance, graduated in the middle of their class.

WILLIAM B. COUGHLIN ’71 MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP
Not Awarded

A scholarship given in memory of William B. Coughlin, Class of 1971, to be awarded to a graduating senior who has a high level of interest in public service and who is going on to college.

THE JOHN AND ANGELIKI COLLIAS SCHOLARSHIP
Kathryn McDonald

A scholarship which has been donated by Arthur J. Collias of the Class of 1955, in memory of his parents. It is to be awarded to worthy students of the Boston Latin School.

THE REBECCA KAPLAN SCHOLARSHIP
Laylanni Camacho

John A. Kaplan, Class of 1957, has donated funds to establish a scholarship to honor his mother, Rebecca, who was unable to attend college. The scholarship is to be awarded to a bright young woman to allow her to attend the college of her choice.
CVII
THE BON FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP
Elyse Hanson, Alana Rabe
From a fund left to the Boston Latin School Association by Arthur M. Bon, Class of 1920.

CVIII
THE MELVIN M. AND SHIRLEY O. PRAGUE SCHOLARSHIP FUND
Jonina Dames
Each year all or a portion of the income derived from the Melvin M. and Shirley O. Prague Scholarship Fund shall be awarded to one or more member(s) of the then graduating class of the Boston Latin School, of whom each shall have (a) maintained an above average level of academic performance, (b) contributed earnest service within and/or beyond the Boston Latin School community, and (c) demonstrated the need for financial assistance to attend a college of his or her choice. Annual awards shall be supervised by and under the direction of the Prize and Scholarship Committee, or any substitution thereof, of the Boston Latin School.

CIX
KIRK O’DONNELL SCHOLARSHIP FUND
Amanda Kessler
During his six years at the Latin School, Kirk O’Donnell was a leader in the classroom, on the athletic fields and in the life of the school. This scholarship, endowed by his friends and family, shall be awarded each year to that member of the senior class who demonstrates the same qualities of leadership and scholarship as Kirk.

CX
THE WADE MCCREE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP
Gayle Guilford
This fund was established in 2000 in memory of Wade Hampton McCree, Jr., Class of 1937. Wade McCree was the first African-American judge in the State of Michigan and Solicitor General of the United States under President Carter. Throughout his life, Judge McCree was a force for good; he tried to make life better for all people with whom he came in contact. This scholarship is awarded to a member of the Graduating Class who best exemplifies these qualities.

CXI
THE JOHN N. YESAYAN SCHOLARSHIP
Leon Saunders
A scholarship established by his family, classmates, and friends in memory of John N. Yesayan, a Class IV student-athlete who was fatally stricken on the football practice field in October of 2000.
This scholarship is awarded annually to a deserving member of Class I who most closely matches John’s many exemplary personal qualities: courtesy, honesty, kindness, sincerity, cheerfulness, persistence, and benevolence.
The candidate need not rank highly in the class, but should possess a marked sense of humor, and the ability to bring joy to the lives of others.
